

The background of the cover is a photograph of a clothing store. In the foreground, two mannequins are visible from the back, their torsos and arms. They are wearing thin red lines that trace the contours of their bodies. In the background, there are racks of clothes. One rack features a vibrant rainbow-colored t-shirt collection, while another rack below it shows a variety of grey t-shirts. The store's ceiling has a grid of square ventilation panels.
